Once a parent provides their consent, we’ll give them an opportunity to review and change important account settings that control how their child can interact with the Website. Parents are also generally free to change or revoke the choices they’ve previously made, and can review the personal information associated with their child’s account or request that we delete it from our systems. To submit these requests or ask us any other questions you may have about how we handle your child’s personal information, please see “How to Contact Us” below.
